Orange County Responds to Plane Crash

Goshen, NY – Orange County Executive Edward A. Diana activated the County's Emergency Operations Center in Goshen today to assist units on the scene at a plane crash site near County Route 12, Lower Road, in the Town of Wawayanda.

"Our County emergency personnel assisted first responders, local fire departments, the NYS police and the FAA on site with their on-going investigation," said County Executive Diana.

Dispatched to the scene from Orange County included personnel from EMS, Emergency Management, Fire, HAZMAT, the Sheriff's Office, and the Medical Examiner's Office.
