Retired OC Historian Hosts Show on Cable Access Channel
Tune into TWC Channel 23 for Ted Sly Interviews of County Notables

Goshen – Recently retired Orange County Historian Ted Sly isn't letting any moss grow under his feet. Just a few short months after retirement from Orange County Government (take note – that was his second retirement), Mr. Sly, along with his wife Linda, has embarked on a new venture to share his love of local history with Orange County residents.

Beginning Tuesday, August 9, at 5 p.m., Mr. Sly will air the first of his interviews with notable Orange County figures on Time Warner Cable's community access channel 23. Joining Mr. Sly for his debut show is Orange County Executive Edward A. Diana. The two discuss old Middletown, Diana's Restaurant, family, teaching, life in Orange County, and so much more.

Mr. Sly's interviews will run on Time Warner Cable channel 23 each Tuesday evening beginning at 5 p.m.
