PORTION OF HERITAGE TRAIL TEMPORARILY CLOSED Duck Farm Road to Old Chester Road, Goshen

Goshen - Orange County Executive Edward A. Diana and Commissioner of the Orange County Department of Parks, Recreation and Conservation Richard L. Rose, Jr. announce the temporary closing of a portion of the Heritage Trail between Duck Farm Road and Old Chester Road in the Town of Goshen.

“The closure takes place immediately to repair a culvert pipe under the trail, and will remain in effect until further notice,” said Commissioner Rose. “The Parks Department has placed detour signs along that portion of the trail to make sure users are not inconvenienced, so that they may continue their recreational activities.”

The 11.5 mile Heritage Trail from the Village of Goshen to the Village of Monroe is operated by the Orange County Department of Parks, Recreation and Conservation. For further information, please call (845) 615-3830 or visit www.orangecountynyparks.com.
