STATEMENT FROM ORANGE COUNTY COMMISSIONER OF EMERGENCY SERVICES

Goshen – Orange County Commissioner of Emergency Services, Walter C. Koury, issued the following statement today:

Orange County experienced moderate tremors today as a result of the earthquake that hit the state of Virginia this afternoon. The County's Department of Emergency Services is assessing and monitoring the situation in conjunction with state and local partners. Our 911 center received over 100 calls from concerned citizens immediately following the earthquake. There are no reports of injuries or structural damages at this time.
