Diana Closes Orange County Government Center Due to Building Conditions Resulting From Heavy Rains

(Goshen, NY) – Orange County Executive Edward A. Diana has closed the Orange County Government Center, located at 255 Main Street in Goshen, at 3 pm today until further notice due to building conditions as a result of the heavy rains in our area.

“The unrelenting rains have caused considerable building related issues which have impacted the operations of the County Government Center,” said County Executive Diana. “As a result, I have ordered that the building be closed until further notice as we evaluate and remediate the situation.”

County employees who normally work at the Government Center should report tomorrow to the SAME LOCATION they reported to last week when the building was closed during Hurricane Irene.

Residents requiring services from the following departments tomorrow, please note:
