County Exec Diana Welcomes Governor Cuomo to Orange

Goshen – Following a tour of flood stricken farms in Orange County today, Governor Andrew Cuomo held a press conference at Glebocki Farms in Goshen to announce the availability of funds to assist farmers recovering from the back to back tropical storms, Irene and Lee.

After the press conference, Orange County Executive Edward A. Diana personally welcomed the Governor to Orange County. He thanked Governor Cuomo for helping the regions' farmers and urged him to continue his support. County Executive Diana also updated the Governor on the County's on-going recovery efforts and funding needs for stricken residents, businesses, and infrastructure.
