Friends of Hill-Hold Host Wreath-Making Workshop At Thomas Bull Memorial Park Boathouse

GOSHEN – Looking for a traditional, home-spun feel for your holiday decorations this year? Find out how to do it yourself at the make-your-own holiday wreath workshop on Saturday, December 3 from 10 a.m. to 12 noon with the Friends of Hill-Hold and Brick House at Orange County's Thomas Bull Memorial Park. The program will be held in the boathouse and is provided by Orange County's Department of Parks, Recreation and Conservation.

Instructors will provide easy-to-follow, step-by-step instructions on how to create a holiday wreath from various fresh greens. Tips for holiday home decorating will also be shared.

“The Friends of Hill-Hold and Brick House do beautiful work at the County's historic homes each holiday season and throughout the year,” said County Executive Edward A. Diana. “We're so fortunate to have them share their time and talent with our County residents. The wreath workshop is a great way to kick-off the holiday season,” added Mr. Diana.

The cost is $30 per person and includes supplies and refreshments. Participants are requested to bring their own clippers to cut the greenery.

Reservations are required to ensure adequate space and supplies for all participants. Please register by contacting Susan A. Tucker at (845) 615-3833, or by email at stucker@orangecountygov.com.
